THE CHASE BENEFICE - FEBRUARY

Dear Friends,

January is a difficult month at the best of times. The festive season is long over, the weather is poor, the days don't seem to be getting noticeably longer and now we are in another national lockdown. In January we need to have something to look forward to. In good times, this is the month we plan what we might do in the coming year, who we might visit, which grandchildren might come to stay, where we might go on holiday. But this year is starting in such an uncertain way that we can make none of those plans. Rather we look on as so many in our country and our world face the terrible consequences of the pandemic. There seems nothing practical we can do except as praying bystanders. But as is the way with the spiritual life, there is always light in the darkness. This dark month reveals to us some chinks of light, for the month of January in the Church is celebrated as the season of Epiphany. During this season we reflect on the extraordinary way the light of the Incarnation - when God became human in the form of Jesus Christ - is spread from its minute beginnings in the Bethlehem manger to the wider world, and even to us in our darkness. As Isaiah prophesied: "Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon you. For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples, but the Lord shall arise upon you, and his glory shall appear over you." The season began with the journey of the Magi, following the star. In the weeks that follow, we reflect on the Baptism of Christ — Christ's going public to the waiting world; we hear how the first followers of Jesus were called; and, we hear of some of the miracles that Jesus preformed. The season ends on the 2nd February with the Feast of the Presentation of Christ in the Temple, or Candlemas, as it is more commonly known. Our attention then turns towards Lent and the events of Holy Week and that first Easter morning, when Jesus rose from the grave, shattering the darkness of death and promising new life for all. None of us knows what this year has in store for us, but there is hope. One of the names of Jesus, which we use particularly at Christmas, is "Emmanuel". Translated it means quite simply, "God with us". And God is with us now and will be with us as go into tomorrow and all the tomorrows. Emmanuel. God with us.

With my very best wishes for better times ahead.

ENSTONE PRIMARY SCHOOL NEWS

Well, this isn't what we hoped to come back to at the beginning of the Spring Term, but once again we find ourselves juggling a combination of in-school and home-learning provision for our pupils. The last minute announcement of the school closure necessitated another very speedy response from us, to ensure that we could safely welcome in the children of Key Workers and also maintain strong provision for our pupils who are, for now, needing to remain at home. Despite all the difficulties that this situation presents, our children have returned to us in good spirits and the whole Enstone Primary School community have risen to the challenges they face. Something new on the agenda for this lockdown is “Google Meets” for our home-learners. Being able to link up with these pupils online is going to be so important in the coming weeks to keep the children focused, motivated and in-touch with their teachers and peers in school. The technology doesn’t always behave itself, and we are all on a steep learning curve, but so far this has been a positive experience for everyone. Reflecting back, we had a lovely end to the autumn term, with some nice Christmas activities including an online pantomime (with ice creams!) and some “Bubble Discos” and parties to enjoy. Father Christmas kindly paid us a visit (socially distanced of course!) and we put together a lovely Christmas celebration of poems, songs and the little ones’ Christmas nativity play, which we were able to film and share with parents via Vimeo.

We must be hopeful that we will soon all be back together as a school community, but for now we have our happy memories of December festivities and a “can do” attitude to the weeks ahead, whatever they bring.

ENSTONE HISTORY SOCIETY REVIEW OF 2020.

As you will all appreciate, there is not a great deal to report this year!

All our 2020 talks and other events had to be cancelled, because of the Pandemic, with the exception of the talk in February. This was presented by Michael Lowe, from Wootton, who talked about the history of the lute. He put the instrument into a social context by reviewing its development from 1620 to the mid eighteenth century. However, in January, the postponed 2019 Christmas Party also took place and was attended by around forty members and their guests. This year, the Committee has decided to suspend subscriptions to the Society even though it is hoped that we may be able to hold some of our scheduled events later in 2021.

I would like to take this opportunity of thanking all members of the Committee for continuing to run the Society albeit at a reduced level this year. Thanks are due to Julia Boardman, our Treasurer, who manages the finances for the Society and is also Membership Secretary and to Anne Francis, our Secretary who manages our administration. Carol Geare is our Editor and produces our Newsletter. Her contribution is much appreciated. Brian Pennington also deserves our thanks for setting up the bar and organising the sandwiches for our meeting this year in addition to arranging the seating. Pam Foxall continued to provide support for which I thank her.

We hope that we may be able to run a reduced programme of events later in 2021 – details of which have already been circulated. You will continue to receive updates on our revised plans but as already indicated, the talk in February has been cancelled and it is with regret that the Committee has decided to cancel the talk in March. I am afraid that it seems likely that the April and May talks will also have to be cancelled but you will, of course, be kept informed. We trust that you will keep safe and well in 2021 and we look forward to your continued support of the Society.

1st ENSTONE GUIDES

We managed two face to face meetings inside prior to Christmas. We had a Christmas movie film night and our secret Santa, all socially distanced and wearing face masks. We now find ourselves in yet another lockdown. However, the Guides are proving very resilient and our numbers are growing. Guides eagerly show up for their weekly Zoom meetings where they can catch up friends and we are able to carry out activities on the Guide programme, mixed in with games and other fun activities such as crafts and cooking. We are looking forward to a Zoom tour of Scotland visiting locations used for the Harry Potter films. Our wands are ready, and invitations are being sent by owl (or e-mail in this case as the owls can’t be trusted to remain socially distanced).

After half term we have some activities planned for World Thinking Day (takes place on 22nd February). Our celebrations will be quite different from last year, when we celebrated Thinking Day in London at one of the Guiding World Centres and we visited Guide HQ on Buckingham Palace Road. Like everyone, we are looking forward to getting out and about again and doing all the things that one might associate with Guides such as hikes, camping and cooking on fires! We welcome any girls aged 10 to 14 years old, if you would like to join us please express your interest at <https://www.girlguiding.org.uk/information-for-parents/register-your-daughter> or contact Kathy Slark 07879630655, EnstoneGuides@outlook.com.
